FHSU Faculty: Please Tell Us What You Need to be Successful in Teaching, Research, and Service

The Faculty Development Committee is seeking your help in determining what skills and knowledge FHSU faculty need to be successful in teaching, research, and service. Today, FHSU faculty will be contacted through email asking for your participation in a survey. The results will be used to prepare a report for Provost Glynn with recommendations on the highest priority items for faculty development. The survey can be found at:

https://fhsucahss.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV\_7UnFqiAm52i699z

The Faculty Development Committee appreciates your taking 5-10 minutes to complete this survey. All responses will be kept confidential and anonymous. Thank you for your participation in this important task!

- Dr. Mary C. Martin, Chair, FHSU Faculty Development Committee

FHSU Vocalist Selected for National Opera Young Artist Program

Clayton Capra, Dighton, KS, a third-year Bachelor of Music Education major and student of Dr. Joseph Perniciaro, has been named a member of the Asheville Lyric Opera Summer Young Artist Program in Asheville, North Carolina. Capra, a baritone, was selected as one of six young artists from national auditions. While in residence, the apprentices will perform a program of opera scenes on a tour of Western Carolina, perform roles and covers in a professional production of Man of La Mancha and/or The Tragedy of Carmen with Asheville Lyric Opera, and receive intensive training that includes two to three lessons per week, diction coaching, acting training, professional development (resume, career guidance, etc.) in addition to group rehearsals on performed repertoire. Perniciaro commented, "I am thrilled that Clayton has this opportunity. Since coming to FHSU in 2005, I have been fortunate to have a number of students audition and perform in national and international young artist programs. Those experiences have not only built upon the training they receive at FHSU, but also inspire and motivate them when they return to their studies. I'm sure the same will be true for Clayton."

repertoire. Perniciaro commented, "I am thrilled that Clayton has this opportunity. Since coming to FHSU in 2005, I have been fortunate to have a number of students audition and perform in national and international young artist programs. Those experiences have not only built upon the training they receive at FHSU, but also inspire and motivate them when they return to their studies. I'm sure the same will be true for Clayton."

Biography: Clayton Capra's roles include: Ptolemy in Handel's Julius Caesar, Ren McCormack in Footloose, Bill in Samuel Barber's chamber opera A Hand of Bridge, Barnaby Tucker in Hello, Dolly! and Seymour in Little Shop of Horrors. Clayton has also enjoyed success competing in the National Association of Teachers Singing Student Auditions in the West Central Region, involving schools from Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska, and Kansas. Here he has placed 5th (2013), 4th (2014), and most recently 2nd (2015) in his division for classical repertoire and 4th (2014 & 2015) in his division for musical theatre repertoire. Capra plans to pursue a master's degree in vocal performance after he completes his undergraduate studies.

National Survey of Student Engagement

**Faculty, please remind your students to participate in this important survey!*

Attention FHSU Freshmen and Senior students: We Want to Hear From You!

What?

The National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) asks college freshmen and seniors to respond to a series of questions regarding their educational experiences. Fort Hays State University has participated in NSSE since

How?

Invitations to participate will be sent to your FHSU student email. If you receive an invitation to participate in NSSE 2016 please fill out the survey and make your opinion count!

Why?

NSSE responses are used by faculty and administrators to improve your educational experiences. By understanding what you feel you have gained from your college education, FHSU can pinpoint and address areas that need improvement, both in and out of the classroom.

Who?

FHSU freshmen and seniors have been randomly chosen to participate in NSSE 2016 spring.

Let Your Voice Be Heard!

If you receive an invitation to participate in NSSE 2016 please fill out the survey and make your opinion count!

- Kristi Mills, Administrative Assistant to the Associate Provost for Quality Improvement

EVENTS

Center for Civic Leadership Events

The Center for Civic Leadership (CCL) will be hosting several events throughout the month of MARCH that encourage civic engagement. If you attend 3 or more Center for Civic Leadership events, within the month of March, email a list of the specific events attended to ccl@fhsu.edu to claim a free t-shirt.

March 21 - 25

Women's History Month Tables at the Memorial Union – All Week

Women's Leadership Project

March is Women's History Month and the Women's Leadership Project would like to include the FHSU community in the celebration. Although many of the accomplishments and contributions of women did not make the history books, women have played a vital role in the course of human civilization. From raising families to leading armies, women have made untold contributions to history. Do you know “herstory”?

Memorial Union; 10:00 am-1:00 pm all week

March 22 - TONIGHT

Film Screening: He Named Me Malala

Global Leadership Project/Women's Leadership Project

For speaking out on behalf of girls' education in Pakistan, Malala Yousafzai was attacked and shot by the Taliban. This Pakistani schoolgirl then emerged as a leading advocate for girls' education globally and is the youngest-ever Nobel Peace Prize Laureate.

Cody Commons; 7:00pm

The Astounding Race

The Global Leadership Project is putting on an event similar to the show "The Amazing Race." We will be calling our event The Astounding Race and it will start at 1:00 PM on April 2nd in the Quad. The event is free and open to all. The participants will be given a passport to take with them as they travel to the different stations across campus. At each station there will be a booth set up to engage and teach the teams about different counties, cultures, holidays and global issues. After completing each station they will receive a stamp on their passport and a clue to lead them to the next location. The stations will be ran by a combination of international students, Nursing majors, and volunteers. Snacks and refreshments will be provided at the end of the event. The team to finish the race first will receive an award. We encourage the teams to dress up as a team or create something to have with them representing their team. Food and refreshments will be provided for the participant after the race. The winning team will receive a prize as well!

Registration forms can be found outside of 208 Custer Hall or at the Union booth March 31st.

If you have any other questions or would like to register please email us at glp@fhsu.edu!

Make a team and come compete with and against your friends!!

- Global Leadership Project, Jaylen Adams and Elizabeth Sigvaldson, Coordinators

Themed Housing Groundbreaking on April 2

You are cordially invited to the groundbreaking ceremony for Themed Housing on Saturday, April 2, at 10 a.m. This celebration will take place at the north corner of the Lewis Field parking lot. In the case of inclement weather, the ceremony will be moved to the Schmidt-Bickle Indoor Training Facility.

Themed Housing is a residential life building project for students who are members of co-curricular groups. We are excited the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and the Delta Zeta and Sigma Sigma Sigma sororities have chosen this unique living and learning environment as their new home.

We hope you will be able to join the Fort Hays State University family for the Themed Housing groundbreaking ceremony on April 2.

- Lisa Karlin, Director of Marketing

AAUW Lean In Together Event: "Centered Leadership Part 3: Connecting"

You are invited!

Please join the American Association of University Women (AAUW) for a special Lean In Together event, "Centered Leadership Part 3: Connecting."

Joanna Barsh, director emeritus of McKinsey and Company and author of books Centered Leadership and How Women Lead, speaks about engagement and the effectiveness of leadership models. This event kicks off with a few words from Barsh, via the Lean In website.

"In Connecting, the focus of this meeting, we learn to build trust and form relationships that enable us to have greater impact. Feeling connected is the key to sustained fulfillment."

All female and male students, faculty, and staff are welcome and encouraged to come. Let's "Lean In Together For Equality." For more information about leaning in together, visit the website leanin.org.

The event will be held Tuesday, March 29, 2016, in the Cody Commons of Memorial Union. We will begin at 6:30 p.m. and end at 8:00 p.m.

For questions about this event, please email Paulia Bailey, Instructor of English, at plbailey@fhsu.edu.
